Dear Friends:

I'd like to cordially invite you to join with us to participate in the Chinese New Year celebration, which is organized by Chinese New Year Culture Association (CNYCA) in partner with California State University at Sacramento (CSUS).

The CNYCA was formed in the greater Sacramento area in 1997. One of CNYCA's objectives is to promote Chinese culture and heritage through the celebration of the Chinese New Year. Each year, the celebration has gathered more than 3,000 audience, businesses, politicians, and media to enjoy and enrich the amazing and ever changing Chinese culture.

According to Chinese calendar, Year 2010 will be the Year of Tiger. We have developed the theme of the celebration with the best wishes to you, your family, and your business. We will celebrate the Chinese New Year on February 6, 2010 at University Union of CSUS. This year's celebration include lion dances, martial arts, Chinese painting and poster contests, vendor booths, stage performances, children's games, karaoke contest, ball room dance, and other cultural activities.

Would you please be part of this celebration by sponsoring or participating in the wonderful celebration programs? By celebrating the Chinese New Year together, we can exchange information, develop friendship, discover business opportunities, and kick off a great start in the Spring of 2010. If you could, please fill in the attached celebration flyer and sponsorship form according to the instructions.

I am looking forward to seeing you at the party, and I really appreciate your prospective support and generosity!

Sincerely,

Charles Mee 米景超
