*The Year of Rabbit - 兔年
Chinese New Year Celebration*

July 1, 2010

Dear Business Owners and Community Leaders:

Being an integral part of the community, you are cordially invited to participate and support the year of the Rabbit Chinese New Year Celebration to be held on Saturday, February 12, 2011, at the CSU Sacramento University Union.

Attached are our flyer and sponsorship form for this most significant, educational and entertaining community event, favored by more than 3,000 attendees annually.

The CNYCA was established 13 years ago by 16 local Sacramento area Chinese American organizations with a not-for-profit 501(c)3 status to benefit our communities. Our objectives are to bring communities together and to promote Chinese culture and heritage through this popular and successful event. Our celebration includes traditional lion dances, martial arts, kung fu, Tai Chi, music, cultural dance performances, Chinese painting and arts, singing contest, children's games, and other fun cultural activities and exhibits. Many local businesses and organizations set up vendor booths to present their goods and services to the public at this event.

Our committee members cover the whole Northern California regions, including all cities surrounding Sacramento area and Davis. We urge you to take part in this rare opportunity to be with the heart of the communities. Please review the attached flyer and sponsorship form, determine your level of participation and support, and return the sponsorship form as soon as possible.

Please visit our website www.CNYCA.net for more information and sample of past year programs. Please do not hesitate to contact me directly for any questions regarding this event.

We appreciate your interest and generous support. We look forward to working with you and your organization or business.

Sincerely,

Mayue Carlson
CNYCA Committee Chair
2011 CNYCA President
