*The Year of the Dragon - 龍年
Chinese New Year Celebration*

Dear Business Owners and Community Leaders:

Being an integral part of the community, you are cordially invited to participate and support the year of the dragon Chinese New Year Celebration which is scheduled on Saturday, February 18, 2012 at the Sacramento Scottish Rite Masonic Center in 6151 H Street, Sacramento, CA 95819.

The CNYCA was established 14 years ago by 16 local Sacramento area Chinese American organizations with a non-profit 501(c)3 status to benefit our communities. Our committee members cover the whole Northern California regions, including all cities surrounding Sacramento area. Our objectives are to bring communities together and to promote Chinese culture and heritage through this popular and successful event. Our celebration includes traditional lion dances, martial arts, kung fu, Tai Chi, music, cultural dance performances, Chinese painting and arts, singing, children's games, and other fun cultural activities and exhibits. Many local businesses and organizations set up vendor booths to present their goods and services to the public at this event.

Attached are our flyer and sponsorship form for this most significant, educational and entertaining community event, favored by more than 3,000 attendees annually. We urge you to take part in this rare opportunity to be with the heart of the communities. Please review the attached flyer and sponsorship form, determine your level of participation and support, and return the sponsorship form as soon as possible.

Please visit our website www.cnyca.net for more information and past year programs. Please do not hesitate to contact me directly for any questions regarding this event.

We appreciate your interest and generous support. We look forward to working with you and your organization or business.

Sincerely,

Dongmin Luo, Ph.D., P.E.
CNYCA 2012, President
