Dear Business Owners and Community Leaders:

In the past 15 years, our Sacramento Chinese New Year Celebrations were very successful. The support from business owners and community leaders was a very important part of the success.

Sacramento Chinese New Year Celebration is the largest event of the Chinese Community in Northern California. More than 3000 people attend annually from Sacramento, Davis, Folsom, Roseville, Elk Grove, Stockton and Modesto. The celebration includes Stage program, Children games, arts and crafts vender and community group exhibitions and food venders. The Stage program will includes Dragon dance, ethnic dance, Kung Fu, Tai Chi, music, solo vocal and chorus. Children's games will provide children with lots of fun.

CNYCA is a non-profit 501(c) 3 organization; we bring communities together and to promote Chinese culture and heritage. We cordially invite you to participate and support the Year of the Snake Chinese New Year Celebration on February 16, 2013 at the Sacrament Scottish Rite Masonic Center at 6151 H Street, Sacramento, CA 95819. The sponsorship form provides few options of support the event, please contact our subcommittee chairs for your participation and support.

Please visit our website: www.cnyca.com to discover more information. We are looking forward to your interest and generous support.

Sincerely

Wei Zhang, Ph.D.
President, 2013 CNYCA
