

Thriving in the Year of Tiger!

虎年騰飛!

September 20, 2009

Dear Friends:

I'd like to cordially invite you to join us and participate in the 2010 Chinese New Year celebration, which is organized by Chinese New Year Culture Association (CNYCA) in partnership with California State University at Sacramento (CSUS).

CNYCA was formed in the greater Sacramento area in 1997. The main objective of CNYCA is to preserve Chinese heritage, promote Chinese culture, and enhance the Chinese American community in the greater Sacramento area through annual Chinese New Year celebration. Each year, the celebration attracts more than 3,000 people, including businesses and news media, from various ethnic backgrounds.

According to the Chinese lunar calendar, Year 2010 will be the "Year of Tiger". We have developed the theme of the celebration -- "Thriving in the Year of Tiger" -- with the best wishes to you, your family, and your businesses. We are planning to celebrate the Chinese New Year on February 6, 2010 at University Union of CSUS. This year's celebration activities include lion dances, martial arts, Chinese painting and poster contests, vendor booths, stage performances, children's games, ball room dance, and other cultural programs.

I am inviting you to be a part of this celebration by sponsoring or participating in the wonderful celebration programs. By celebrating the Chinese New Year together, we can exchange information, develop friendship, discover business opportunities, and kick off a great start in the spring of 2010. Please fill out the attached sponsorship form, according to the instructions, to support this unique local Sacramento event.

I am looking forward to seeing you at the celebration, and I really appreciate your prospective support and generosity!

Sincerely,

Charles Mee, Chairman
